

City of San Angelo Website Privacy Policy

This policy contains information regarding the methods of data collection used and information collected by the City of San Angelo from visitors to the City's website at cosatx.us. The City of San Angelo website privacy policy applies only to this site. The City's website contains links to other sites, including those operated by other governmental agencies, nonprofit organizations and educational institutions. Users who link to another website are subject to the privacy policy of that site. Updates to this policy may be made periodically so visit this site for the latest policy.

PERSONAL INFORMATION YOU PROVIDE

Any comments, questions or other disclosed information containing personally identifiable information that has been submitted through e-mail, by online forms or in response to survey/solicitation from this website shall remain the property of the City of San Angelo and may be subject to the Texas Public Information Act and applicable federal legislation. This information collected is not subject to any obligation of confidence on the part of the City of San Angelo nor shall the City be liable for any use or disclosure of any of the information collected.

For online City government transactions conducted on the website, users will be asked to enter specific information about themselves and/or the organization with which they are affiliated. The details of this information will vary as required by the type of transaction. The online information requested will include the same information that would be requested if you were to perform the same transaction in person. Collected information for a transaction is used for the following purposes:

- To conduct online transactions with the appropriate City government entities (i.e., payment of a parking ticket, utility bill, etc.).
- To send users a confirmation e-mail of their transaction.
- To forward announcements, bulletins or content features to you if you have requested to receive such service(s).

Certain information that is collected is considered private information under state and federal law. We will not disclose the following information:

- Social Security number.

- Driver's license number.
- Credit card information.
- Bank account information.

The City of San Angelo's website may be required by law enforcement or judicial authorities to provide personally identifiable information to the appropriate governmental authorities. Our organization fully cooperates with law enforcement agencies in identifying those who use our services for illegal activities. We reserve the right to report to law enforcement agencies any activities we in good faith believe to be unlawful.
