2. Public Comment

There was no public comment.

3. Regular Agenda

a. Discussion of police and fire chiefs, with special guests Police Chief ~~David Howard Frank~~ Carter and Former Fire Chief Brian Dunn

Chief Dunn spoke first and described the extensive process that cities go through in order to appoint a Fire Chief. His description included the extensive requirements of fire experience, the rounds of interviews, and the Q&A sessions with members of the interested public that he has experienced in his career.

Chief Carter spoke and described the election process and its impact on the job, the police department, and the citizens of San Angelo. He mentioned that there are pros and cons for electing vs appointing a Chief of Police, but in both scenarios, minimum qualifications for the job are very important things to consider.
