

City of San Angelo
City Council Travel Expense Policy
October 2002

City of San Angelo Council members will occasionally need to travel out of town in the conduct of City business.

Traveling Council members will be reimbursed for their documented travel expenses as well as any documented expenses (except for alcoholic beverages) associated with conducting City business.

Alternately, Council members shall have the option to be reimbursed in accordance with the terms contained within the Employee Travel Expense Policy.

The option to obtain a travel advance is available to Council members.
